Detailed Note on Activities of the Applicant

VAIDIK SANATAN SEWA SANSTHAN is a charitable and non-profit organization established with the primary objective of promoting social welfare, education, spiritual awareness, humanitarian services, and preservation of Indian cultural and Vedic values. The institution is formed with a vision to serve society without discrimination on the basis of caste, creed, religion, gender, or economic status.

The activities of the organization, as envisaged in the Trust Deed, are detailed below:

1. Promotion of Vedic and Sanatan Culture

The Sansthan aims to preserve, promote, and spread the teachings and values of Vedic and Sanatan Dharma through various religious, spiritual, and cultural programs. The organization proposes to organize:

- Pravachans, Satsang, Yagya, Katha, Bhajan, and spiritual discourses;
- Celebration of religious and cultural festivals;
- Awareness programs on Indian heritage, moral values, and ethical living;
- Publication and distribution of books, pamphlets, and educational literature related to Vedic knowledge and Sanatan traditions.

2. Educational Activities

The organization intends to undertake various educational initiatives for the benefit of society, especially economically weaker sections, including:

- Establishment and operation of schools, coaching centres, libraries, and educational institutions;
- Providing scholarships, books, stationery, uniforms, and educational assistance to deserving students;
- Conducting awareness and skill development programs for youth and women;
- Organizing seminars, workshops, and training programs for educational and social upliftment.

3. Relief to Poor and Needy Persons

The Sansthan is committed to carrying out charitable activities for the welfare of underprivileged and weaker sections of society by:

- Distribution of food, clothes, blankets, medicines, and other essential items;
- Providing financial and humanitarian assistance to poor, helpless, widows, senior citizens, and differently-abled persons;
- Organizing community kitchens, food distribution camps, and relief programs during emergencies and natural calamities.

4. Medical and Health Care Activities

The organization proposes to work in the field of health and public welfare through:

- Organizing free medical camps, blood donation camps, eye camps, and health awareness programs;
- Providing medical aid, medicines, and support to needy patients;
- Promoting cleanliness, hygiene, sanitation, and preventive healthcare awareness among the public.

5. Women and Child Welfare

The Sansthan aims to support women empowerment and child welfare by:

- Conducting vocational and skill training programs for women;
- Promoting awareness regarding education, health, nutrition, and legal rights of women and children;
- Supporting orphaned, abandoned, and economically weaker children through welfare initiatives.

6. Social Welfare and Community Development

The organization intends to undertake activities for the overall development of society, including:

- Environmental protection and plantation drives;
- Promotion of social harmony, national integration, and moral values;
- Awareness campaigns against social evils, addiction, and illiteracy;
- Rural development and community welfare programs.

7. Non-Profit Nature of Activities

The activities of VAIDIK SANATAN SEWA SANSTHAN are purely charitable in nature and are carried out without any profit motive. The income and funds of the organization are solely utilized for achieving the objects of the Sansthan, and no part thereof is distributed among the trustees or members.

8. Public Charitable Character

The benefits and services of the organization are available to the general public at large without discrimination. The organization works for the advancement of charitable objectives and public welfare in accordance with applicable laws and the objectives mentioned in the Trust Deed.
